

CARLO GEREMIA

Salary Partner at Nctm Law Firm

Profile

Carlo, an Italian-qualified lawyer and LL.M (UK), has been living and working in China for over twenty years. During these times of outstanding social and economic developments, Carlo has been helping foreign companies to navigate the Chinese changing business and regulatory environment.

Carlo's practice focus covers intellectual property protection and enforcement, compliance and data privacy, cross-border investments and commercial contracts.

Carlo has been advising a multitude of foreign companies on securing the registration and protection of their intellectual property rights in China. Recent projects involve: enforcement of trademark rights against unauthorized users of a luxury F&B brand; implementation of IP protection strategy and enforcement for a sport car brand; management and implementation of an IP enforcement plan encompassing evidence collection, administrative actions and litigation for a high-end consumer goods brand.

Carlo is a China IP expert for major Italian business associations. He is also often invited as a speaker at events regarding doing business in China.

Carlo lives and works in Shanghai. He is a fluent Mandarin speaker and a passionate China traveler.
