Short Company Description

The Galileo Galilei Italian Institute (GGII) was established in December 2007 in the main campus of Chongqing University, People's Republic of China. The Institute is the result of a cooperation agreement between Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies in Pisa and Chongqing University, officially signed in December 2004 on the occasion of the visit of the then Italian President Carlo Azeglio Ciampi to China. The main objective of the Galileo Galilei Italian Institute is the strengthening of joint research projects on areas of expertise shared by Sant'Anna and CQU. These include Innovation Management, Health and Wellbeing Management, Augmented Reality and Bio-robotics, Photonics, Software Engineering and Telecommunication Engineering, Biotechnology, Economics, Legal and Institutional Systems. In order to improve the acceleration of research projects, GGII facilitates interaction opportunities between academics, researchers and scholars of Sant'Anna and Chongqing University.
