

Energy efficiency, urban mobility, smart cities...

What about Sustainable Cities in Europe and China?

Seize opportunities at China Europa 2014!

China Europa aims to present the major issues and projects of the sustainable cities in Europe and in China, as well as to highlight related economic opportunities and enable partnerships between European and Chinese stakeholders: companies, territories and expert networks.

5 reasons why to participate in China Europa 2014

- Discover major urban projects in European and Chinese cities on China Europa exhibition area
- Update your knowledge about the latest technologies and solutions of the Sustainable Urban Development thanks to a dedicated workshops programme
- Promote your expertise and products to private and public decision makers in ideal conditions during pre-arranged business meetings
- Benefit from the presence of numerous major stakeholders in energy and urban development, such as territories highly committed towards sustainable development
- Save time and money in your international prospecting efforts

Main sectors represented

Urban development - Architecture & Construction - Energy - Energy efficiency - Decarbonated energies - Air & water treatment - Urban transport - Waste treatment

CHINA EUROPA 2014 IS SPONSORED BY:

沈阳市人民政府
The People's Government of Shenyang

Information & registration on www.china-europa.org